Dear Großmeister Dai-Sifu Reimers,

I would like to personally thank you for giving the Wing Tsung Workshop at our Fraunhofer event on 23rd March, 2015.

The workshop has been one of the highlights of the event, and the participants reported that it allowed them to both gain some insightful ideas about risk management and strategy, as well as an original way to refresh themselves after a long day of intellectual work.

Your workshop had a perfect balance between theory and practice, was engaging and amusing to the audience.

It would be a pleasure to work with you again in our future educational events here at the strascheg Center for Entrepreneurship.

All the very best,

Assaf Shamia,
Head of the Executive Education Program
Strascheg Center for entrepreneurship.
